FARMERS BRANCH
— Texas —
VISITORS GUIDE

Welcome to
Farmers Branch, Texas

Welcome to Farmers Branch. We are thrilled to share all the wonders of our history-representing, nature-inspiring, foodie-loving small town oasis fifteen minutes north of the towering skyscrapers of Downtown Dallas.

Either you are here for a week or a weekend, Our small-town-turned-big-city-suburb captivates history buffs, nature lovers, active families and foodies alike.

The year-round entertainment, miles of hike-and-bike trails, thriving culinary scene, and enough active family activities to wear out the most energetic of little ones will be sure to keep you busy from sunup to sundown.

Whether your taste buds prefer Asian Fusion, traditional Mexican or down home barbecue, our burgeoning restaurant scene has something for everyone. While you are here belly up to one of our independent restaurants to dine on flavor-forward dishes, sample a local craft brew or sip on a frozen margarita.

Farmers Branch is the perfect jumping off spot to discover the entire metroplex. The light rail takes you straight to downtown Dallas where you can explore the country's largest Arts District, take in a concert or watch a Dallas Stars hockey game.

What started off as Dallas County's first settlement has grown into a vibrant community in the heart of one of the nation's largest metroplexes. Despite the surrounding hustle-and-bustle, Farmers Branch retains the charm of a small town with mom-and-pop stores, one-of-a-kind dining, and historic museums. We are glad you are here to discover all Farmers Branch has to offer.

Top things to do on your stay...

Farmers Branch is an extraordinary community with a small-town feel and big-city

1 | Eat & Drink

A thriving cultural community usually goes hand-in-hand with a dynamic food scene. Here in Farmers Branch we have both. Whether you want to dine on traditional Vietnamese street food, sink your teeth into mouth-watering barbecue, sample Mexican pastries or sip on locally brewed craft beer, Farmers Branch's diverse culinary scene has you covered.

2 | Shopping

Shopping is a Dallas-area pastime and Farmers Branch is no exception. Looking for furniture? You are in luck. From traditional furniture stores to Mod European boutiques, we are home to one of the largest concentrations of furniture stores in the country. Looking for a unique souvenir? Browse through our world-class independent record shop and boutique gift stores.

3 | Get Outside

Farmers Branch isn't nicknamed "The City in the Park" for nothing. Escape the concrete jungle with our network of parks, community gardens, walking trails and historical parks. Hike along the wetlands in the 104-acre John F. Burke Nature Preserve, run the Rawhide Park Trail or just grab a seat on a bench at one of our 30 peaceful parks.

4 | Entertainment

With year-round holiday celebrations, movies in the park, and music festivals, it's easy to plan a night on the town in Farmers Branch. Theater buffs be sure to catch a knee-slapping comedy or soul-stirring musical at the historic-fire-station-turned-performance-arts-venue, the Firehouse Theater.

5 | Family Activities

Farmers Branch has a plethora of activities to entertain, energize, and exercise the whole family. Catch a family friendly theater performance at the Firehouse Theatre, splash around at the Aquatic Center or ice skate the day away at the Farmers Branch Star Center.

6 | Take a step back in time

As the first settlement in Dallas County history runs deep in Farmers Branch. Explore the past 175 years of history at the Farmers Branch Historical Park's outdoor museum. For historical sports lovers, catch a Vintage baseball game or stop by the Texas Hockey History Center to learn the rich history of the sport in the Lone Star State.

The best drinks in the city... you decide!

Whether served on-tap, seeped from ancient leaves or freshly brewed, the drink selection in Farmers Branch is on point. Our buzzing-cafes, craft breweries and hot tea havens provide unique opportunities for you to quench your thirst.

BREAKING BREW MEADERY - MEAD

Looking for a gluten-free alternative to beer? Try a cold glass of mead at Breaking Brew Meadery. The new trend of the ancient lightly carbonated drink made from fermented honey is making its way to Texas. The family-owned meadery is the only one in North Texas. Similar to craft beer, mead is extremely versatile allowing mead makers to brew up a rotating section of flavors like raspberry, blueberry, hopped grapefruit and, because it is Texas, jalapeño Short on time? No problem. They sell growlers and cans to go.

NATIVE COFFEE

Looking for your morning jolt of caffeine topped with frothy steamed milk or are you more of a Chai Latte lover? Either way the craft coffee experts at Native Coffee will make sure you are properly caffeinated before you get out there in the world. The black trees stenciled onto of stark white walls make the cafe a perfect backdrop of your morning #coffeegram post.

ODD MUSE BREWERY

If your taste buds demand more hops and less honey from your alcoholic beverages stop by ODD Muse Brewery. The newly opened brewery has 14 taps of freshly brewed IPAs, Russian stouts, blondes ales and hefeweizen. Can't decide on one? Try a flight of four. The kid friendly brewery stocked full of puzzles and board games will keep your kids busy while you are determining the best beer.

THE CULTURED CUP

Stepping into The Cultured Cup is like stepping into a tranquil oasis of tea. Owner Kyle Stewart - Texas' first certified tea specialist - will help you navigate the selection of 150 curated teas from around the world. Are you an aspiring tea nerd? Take one of the several cafe classes such as tea as functional medicine, aesthetics of a Japanese tea ceremony, and the exploration of Nepal tea.

You can't visit Farmers Branch without having the unofficial drink of Texas: a margarita. From frozen ritas to Mexican Martinis, Farmers Branch restaurants serves up more than one variation of the iconic tart-lime tequila drink. We suggest you try them all.
